KForce Government Solutions and BRADSON Join Forces to Create Premier Federal Partner

June 26 – Fairfax, VA – Kforce Government Solutions and BRADSON Corp., wholly owned subsidiaries of Kforce and its Kforce Government Holdings (KGH) Group, announced today the companies have merged into Kforce Government Solutions (KGS). The combined strengths of these innovative, award-winning companies will provide Government clients with a full range of services and solutions in Enterprise Data Management, Financial and Accounting Solutions, Business Performance Management, Enterprise IT Solutions, and Finance and Accounting and IT onshore outsourcing.

“Each company brings a strong and proven leadership team. This merger combines the core capabilities of each company to provide our government clients integrated solutions across a wide spectrum of challenges,” said Larry Grant, President of the new KGS. “We believe the ability to provide our clients unified solutions across enterprise data management, finance and accounting, and business process management puts KGS in a very unique position. Given the increased risks encountered in today’s environment, vertical silos of data and best practices are no longer acceptable. It is our responsibility to ensure our clients have certainty in their data, systems, and processes. We call this Data Confidence®, and we apply it to all our offerings.”

Jim Chapman, Executive Vice President of the merged KGS agreed. “The 600 plus associates of the combined companies bring together a highly skilled, professional workforce with an in-depth operational knowledge of the government and industry best practices. This is an example of synergy at its best. Our clients will benefit from the combined skill set, knowledge base, and significantly expanded portfolio of services.”
