Kforce Professional Staffing Announces New Web Site (www.kforce.com)
*Site Combines New, More Interactive Features with Greater Content Depth

TAMPA, Fla. – (Sept. 12, 2007) – Kforce Professional Staffing (NASDAQ:KFRC) has launched a new web site (www.kforce.com) with additional features to support professional placement services for both clients and job seekers in the areas of technology, finance & accounting, health & life sciences and government solutions.

“Our new web site reflects the extensive research we conducted to identify the priority information needs and preferences of clients and job seekers,” says Chris Hachey, director, eMarketing, Kforce. “We believe it greatly enhances our ability to serve these audiences electronically, while delivering on its primary goal of connecting job seekers and clients with our staffing specialists in 67 offices nationwide.”

Features of the web site include:

- Fresh, easy-to-navigate design that incorporates web best practices
- Dedicated, content-rich sub sites for each area of specialization
- Hourly updates of job postings
- Addition of “featured jobs,” “job alerts” and “email to a friend” features
- Seamless integration with Kforce’s proprietary national candidate database comprised of more than 2 million job seekers

“Kforce continues to leverage the industry’s most relevant and effective technologies to enhance communications and provide the best service to clients and job seekers,” adds Hachey.

“As our web strategy continues to evolve along with the web’s growth, we believe our new site lays the foundation for leveraging the best that Web 2.0 has to offer.”
